

From the All Saints Team

At last week's 10am mass it was announced that after more than a year in vacancy, a new Vicar has been appointed at All Saints! We are delighted that the Revd Catriona Cumming will soon be joining us as our new Vicar. Catriona comes to us from York Minster, where she has been Succentor for the past 6 years. Her last Sunday at York Minster will be 12th May, and we expect she will join us here at All Saints soon afterwards. The date of her licensing is still to be announced.

Catriona has sent this message following her appointment:

"I am beyond thrilled to be taking up the post of Vicar of All Saints' Hove. I am looking forward to joining the Parish at a very exciting time, when there is so much happening and with the potential of so much more to come. I have been struck by what I have seen of the community and the mission at All Saints', in particular the deep importance of hospitality towards the local community, and the joy of worship and mission that proclaims the Gospel in deed and word."

We are very much looking forward to welcoming Catriona to All Saints!

Today's Readings

A Reading from the Book of Kings

Now when the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, 'Stay here; for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel.' But Elisha said, 'As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.' So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, 'Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?' And he said, 'Yes, I know; keep silent.'

Elijah said to him, 'Elisha, stay here; for the LORD has sent me to Jericho.' But he said, 'As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.' So they came to Jericho. The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, 'Do you know that today the LORD will take your master away from you?' And he answered, 'Yes, I know; be silent.'

Then Elijah said to him, 'Stay here; for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan.' But he said, 'As the LORD lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.' So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground.

When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, 'Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you.' Elisha said, 'Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit.' He responded, 'You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not.' As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, 'Father, father! The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!' But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

2 Kings 2, vv. 1-12

Lord, even the most mighty God, hath spoken:

and called the world, from the rising up of the sun unto the going down thereof.

Out of Sion hath God appeared:

in perfect beauty.

Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence:

there shall go before him a consuming fire, and a mighty tempest shall be stirred up round about him.

He shall call the heaven from above:

and the earth, that he may judge his people.

Gather my saints together unto me:

those that have made a covenant with me with sacrifice.

And the heavens shall declare his righteousness:

for God is Judge himself.

Psalms 50, vv. 1-6

A Reading from the Epistle to the Corinthians

And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness', who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 4, vv. 3-6

A Reading from the Gospel of Mark

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. <sup>5</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!' Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.
