

From the Vicar – I am about to head up to a consultation for members of the Major Churches Network in Oxford. I thought a peek behind the curtain might be interesting. A ‘major church’ has all or most of the following characteristics:

- Physically very big (over 1000m² footprint) ✓
- Grade I ✓, II* II listed
- Exceptional significance and/or issues necessitating a conservation management plan ✓
- Have a role or roles beyond those of a typical parish church, and make a considerable civic, cultural and economic contribution to their communities ✓,

The MCN’s mission is to enable Major Parish Churches to proclaim Jesus Christ afresh in every generation through: Support, Advocacy, Training. This consultation is with central church officers, and the University of York’s centre for Christianity and culture. If there is anything interesting to report, I will let you know! Fr Catriona.

Youth Pilgrimage message from +Will - The Summer of 2026 is shaping up to be a wonderful season of opportunity for the young people of our Diocese. In August we look forward to the Chichester Diocese Group Pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham for the annual Youth Pilgrimage. Prices for our Chichester pilgrims have been held at the same level as last year — just £245, which includes travel, accommodation, food, and a T-shirt. Our young pilgrims are surrounded by others their own age and are immersed in uplifting Sacramental worship and Bible study (this year led by our very own Rev Alice Smith). I would really love to welcome as many young people as possible from Chichester to the Shrine. (Please speak to Fr Catriona if the cost is a barrier to participation as the Diocese will be able to assist). This year's theme is "GAUDETE — Leaping for Joy!" and it will be a week of music, teaching, prayer, laughter, and life-changing encounters. As those of us who have been will know, no one leaves Walsingham unchanged.

Today's Mass – 2nd Sunday after Trinity

ALL SAINTS
Living Faith in Hope

OPENING HYMN

All my hope on God is founded;
he doth still my trust renew.
Me through change
and chance he guideth,
only good and only true.
God unknown, he alone
calls my heart to be his own.

3
God's great goodness aye endureth,
deep his wisdom, passing thought:
splendour, light and life attend him,
beauty springeth out of naught.
Evermore, from his store,
new-born worlds rise and adore.

2
Human pride and earthly glory,
sword and crown betray his trust;
what with care and toil he buildeth,
tow'r and temple, fall to dust.
But God's pow'r, hour by hour,
is my temple and my tow'r.

4
Still from earth to God eternal
sacrifice of praise be done,
high above all praises praising
for the gift of Christ his Son.
Christ doth call one and all:
ye who follow shall not fall.

THE COLLECT

Lord, you have taught us
that all our doings without love are nothing worth:
send your Holy Spirit
and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love,
the true bond of peace and of all virtues,
without which whoever lives is counted dead before you.
Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A Reading from the book Exodus

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, ‘Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.’ So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. ⁸The people all answered as one: ‘Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.’ Moses reported the words of the people to the Lord.

Exod. 19. 2-8a

PSALM 100

- 1 O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth; ♦ serve the Lord with gladness and come before his presence with a song.
- 2 Know that the Lord is God; ♦
it is he that has made us and we are his;
we are his people and the sheep of his pasture.
- 3 Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise; ♦ give thanks to him and bless his name.
- 4 For the Lord is gracious; his steadfast love is everlasting, ♦ and his faithfulness endures from generation to generation.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Rom. 5. 1-8

GRADUAL HYMN

1
God in his wisdom, for our learning
gave his inspired and holy word:
promise of Christ, for our discerning,
by which our souls are moved
and stirred,
finding our hearts within us burning
when, as of old, his voice is heard.

2
Symbol and story, song and saying,
life-bearing truths for heart and mind,
God in his sovereign grace displaying tenderest care for humankind,
Jesus our Lord this love portraying,
open our eyes to seek and find.

3
Come then with prayer and contemplation,
see how in Scripture Christ is known;
wonder anew at such salvation
here in these sacred pages shown;
lift every heart in adoration,
children of God by grace alone!

GOSPEL SENTENCE – ‘I call you friends’ says the Lord: ‘because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father.’

John 15. 15

GOSPEL READING

A reading from the Gospel of St Matthew

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, ‘The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.’

Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him.

These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.
