Job Opportunity - Little Fishes Playgroup Leader -

With changes coming to our Children and Families staff team, we're looking for a new playgroup leader to take on the weekly running of Little Fishes on Monday afternoons and Tuesday mornings for a 12-month fixed-term contract. This is an exciting opportunity to build upon a successful, established framework and help the playgroup continue to thrive as a welcoming space for children and families in Hove and a key ministry project here at All Saints. The role is part-time, 8 hours a week, £13.75 per hour. If this could be you or someone you know, please do have a look and spread the word. All the info is on our website (allsaintshove.org/job-opportunity) or please email operations@allsaintshove.org. Applications close on 26th July.

Lunchtime Concerts - Our 2026 lunchtime concert continues this Thursday 23rd July and runs through every Thursday 1 - 2pm until 27th August, with a refreshing mix of classical and jazz concerts. This week we welcome Anya Kolesnik (piano). Pianist Anya Kolesnik presents a programme featuring works by Liszt, Debussy and Rachmaninov. The list of performers can be found on our website Lunchtime Concerts | All Saints Hove. There is a suggested £5 donation to attend the concerts, and One Bread Cafe will be open so you can enjoy a coffee or lunch before or after the concert.

Supporting Sunday Ministry - We are currently working hard to recruit volunteers to be chaperones and Sunday ministry assistants for the various children's provisions on Sundays. As the number of children has grown there is a greater need for adult support at this time. Please get in touch with Catherine if you would like to volunteer.

Flowers - If you would like to donate towards the lovely flowers on display to mark a special occasion, please speak to one of the Flower Team, Church Wardens or contact the Parish Office.

THE COLLECT

Lord of all power and might,
the author and giver of all good things:
graft in our hearts the love of your name,
increase in us true religion,
nourish us with all goodness,
and of your great mercy keep us in the same;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A Reading from the book of Wisdom

For neither is there any god besides you, whose care is for all people,
to whom you should prove that you have not judged unjustly;
For your strength is the source of righteousness,
and your sovereignty over all causes you to spare all.
For you show your strength when people doubt
the completeness of your power,
and you rebuke any insolence among those who know it.
Although you are sovereign in strength, you judge with mildness,
and with great forbearance you govern us;
for you have power to act whenever you choose.
Through such works you have taught your people
that the righteous must be kind,
and you have filled your children with good hope,
because you give repentance for sins.

Wisdom 12. 13, 16-19

PSALM 86. 11-end

11. Teach me your way, O Lord, and I will walk in your truth; ♦
knit my heart to you, that I may fear your name.
12. I will thank you, O Lord my God, with all my heart, ♦
and glorify your name for evermore;
13. For great is your steadfast love towards me, ♦
for you have delivered my soul from the depths of the grave.
14. O God, the proud rise up against me and a ruthless horde seek after my life; ♦
they have not set you before their eyes.
15. But you, Lord, are gracious and full of compassion, ♦
slow to anger and full of kindness and truth.
16. Turn to me and have mercy upon me; ♦
give your strength to your servant
and save the child of your handmaid.
17. Show me a token of your favour,
that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed; ♦
because you, O Lord, have helped and comforted me.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

So then, brothers and sisters, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—for if you live according to the flesh, you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption. When we cry, ‘Abba! Father!’ it is that very Spirit bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ—if, in fact, we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory about to be revealed to us. For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the children of God; for the creation was subjected to futility, not of its own will but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope ²¹ that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to decay and will obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labour pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

GOSPEL READING

A reading from the Gospel of St Matthew

He put before them another parable: ‘The kingdom of heaven may be compared to someone who sowed good seed in his field; but while everybody was asleep, an enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and then went away. So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared as well. And the slaves of the householder came and said to him, “Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where, then, did these weeds come from?” He answered, “An enemy has done this.” The slaves said to him, “Then do you want us to go and gather them?” But he replied, “No; for in gathering the weeds you would uproot the wheat along with them. Let both of them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will tell the reapers, Collect the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.”’

Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples approached him, saying, ‘Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field.’ He answered, ‘The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man; the field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels. Just as the weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all evildoers, and they will throw them into the furnace of fire, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let anyone with ears listen!

COMMUNION HYMN

To you, O Lord, our only help,
our life in love upholding,
we bring a willing sacrifice,
our constant praise unfolding;

3
O Holy Spirit, love divine,
our halting tongues enlighten,
and by your wordless sighs of grace
our sense of glory heighten.

For you alone are Lord Most High,
in light eternal living,
and from the greatness of your power
a gentle judgement giving.

O Holy Reaper, come with grace
to us, whose hearts adore you,
who long to see your kingdom come
and stand in joy before you.

POST COMMUNION COLLECT

Lord God, whose Son is the true vine and the source of life,
ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves
the power of his death and passion
that, in his saving cup,
we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.
