Baptism of Poppy, George and Freddie – This Sunday, 28th June, at 1.00 pm, Poppy George and Freddie will be baptised at All Saints. Their parents, Francesca and Harry, would like to invite anyone from the congregation who is free to join them for this very special service.

A thank you from Family Support Work - I am writing to acknowledge and thank everyone at All Saints', Hove - all those involved raising funds. We are very grateful that you chose recently to donate £238.68, in aid of FSW. With the help of our FSW friends we can continue reaching families who need encouragement, practical help, and compassionate support at what can be a very challenging time Jason Palmer from FSW. (To this can we add our own thanks to Catherine, who has co-ordinated so much of the work for FSW at All Saints) Fr Catriona.

Lunchtime Concerts - Our 2026 lunchtime concert continues this Thursday 2nd July and runs through every Thursday 1 - 2pm until 27th August, with a refreshing mix of classical and jazz concerts. This week we welcome Rob Luft (guitar) & Rebecka Edlund (voice). Edlund and Luft invite the listener along on a wild venture of original music, Nordic folk tales and American Songbook favourites. The list of performers can be found on our website Lunchtime Concerts | All Saints Hove. There is a suggested £5 donation to attend the concerts, and One Bread Cafe will be open so you can enjoy a coffee or lunch before or after the concert.

Compline – If you are new to faith this service and the content beforehand is designed for you. We meet at 7.00 pm for hot chocolate/other hot drink. Over the next couple of months, we will be thinking about 'The Lord's Prayer' – a foundational prayer in the Christian faith. We finish with compline at 8.00 pm. The remaining dates are: 25th June; 9th July.

Safeguarding training – A face-to-face session for the Safeguarding Basic Awareness training will take place after Mass at 11:30am on Sunday 5th July. If you would like to attend, please speak to Ann Joyce (Safeguarding Officer) or Stephanie Kittow (Churchwarden).

Supporting Sunday Ministry - We are currently working hard to recruit volunteers to be chaperones and Sunday ministry assistants for the various children's provisions on Sundays. As the number of children has grown there is a greater need for adult support at this time. Please get in touch with Catherine if you would like to volunteer.

Flowers - If you would like to donate towards the lovely flowers on display to mark a special occasion, please speak to one of the Flower Team, Church Wardens or contact the Parish Office.

Benefact Trust - are giving 20 charities £5,000 each in this special draw until July 5th.

THE COLLECT

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy;
that with you as our ruler and guide
we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal;
grant this, heavenly Father,
for our Lord Jesus Christ's sake,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING

A Reading from the book Jeremiah

Then the prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord; and the prophet Jeremiah said, 'Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord fulfil the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet.'

Jer. 28. 5-9

PSALM 89. 1-4, 15-18

- 1 My song shall be always of the loving-kindness of the Lord: ♦ with my mouth will I proclaim your faithfulness throughout all generations.
- 2 I will declare that your love is established for ever; ♦ you have set your faithfulness as firm as the heavens.
- 3 For you said: 'I have made a covenant with my chosen one; ♦
I have sworn an oath to David my servant:
- 4 ' "Your seed will I establish for ever ♦ and build up your throne for all generations." '
- 15 Happy are the people who know the shout of triumph: ♦
they walk, O Lord, in the light of your countenance.
- 16 In your name they rejoice all the day long ♦
and are exalted in your righteousness.
- 17 For you are the glory of their strength, ♦ and in your favour you lift up our heads.
- 18 Truly the Lord is our shield; ♦
the Holy One of Israel is our king.

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

Therefore, do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Rom. 6. 12-end

GRADUAL HYMN – Jesu the very thought of thee, 485 - tune KILMARNOCK

GOSPEL SENTENCE – Your words are spirit and life: you have the words of eternal life.

John 6. 63, 68

GOSPEL READING

A reading from the Gospel of St Matthew

Jesus said: 'Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple—truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward.'

Matt. 10. 40-end

OFFERTORY HYMN – Take my life and let it be, 581, tune NOTTINGHAM
